Bible Promises

John 7:37-39
On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water." But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Discipleship

Mark 2:15
Now it happened, as He was dining in Levi's house, that many tax collectors and sinners also sat together with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many, and they followed Him.
As a disciple, you are called to walk in Jesus' steps. Jesus was a friend of tax collectors and sinners. Do you have friends who are unbelievers? Invite them to eat with you and you will be a fruitful disciple following Jesus' example.

The Bible Man

Denis Burkitt was a doctor who loved the Lord, loved the Bible, and was named the Fiber Man because of the discoveries he made about the role of fiber in our diet. As a believer, he is known not only for spending much time in God's Word, but also for meditating on His word, and growing in the Lord. He believed that the lack of prayer and meditation on God's Word are the great cause of spiritual weakness in the life of many Christians. That's why I am calling him as the Bible Man. It is one of the greatest achievements of the believer to be known as a man or woman of the Bible. It is our prayer that many believers will be called the Bible Men.

The Benefit of Giving

"Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive (Acts 20:35).'" Jesus' love for us was proved in His death on the cross for our sin, that He may redeem us. He gave Himself for us as the indescribable gift (2 Corinthians 9:15). His example of giving is eternal, sacrificial, redemptive, indescribable, and changed our lives forever. Let's follow Him as giving disciples.
